

The Greater Kansas City
FEDERAL EXECUTIVE BOARD
EARLY/MID CAREER SEMINAR

RESUME WRITING

June 6, 2018

Objectives

- Learn tips to market yourself
- Understand what information to include on your resume
- Understand best practices for describing your experience

What's the Truth?

Resumes are scanned for keywords by an automated system

Mostly False

- HR Specialists review resumes, however some agencies also use an automated system to review resumes.
- For the agencies that do use an automated system, the resume review process has two parts:
 - An automated application review process to include all the required areas of the applicant's eligibility and qualifications for the job
 - A manual review, by the HR Specialist, of an applicant's resume to validate the information in the application package

What's the Truth?

A federal resume should not exceed two pages

False

A federal resume requires more information than a private sector resume; therefore, it is typically longer than two pages.

MENTORING PROGRAM

What's the Truth?

You need to tailor your federal resume to each position

Partially True

Tailoring your resume is not required. However, you must demonstrate in your resume that you're qualified for the position.

Remember, this is a document the HR Specialist uses determine if your resume should be forwarded to the hiring manager.

Resume Content

Why Is the Resume Important?

Your resume is your primary method to communicate how you qualify for the position.

Read the entire job announcement. Focus on the following sections to understand whether or not you qualify for the position.

- Duties
- Requirements

USAJOBS.gov

The Greater Kansas City Federal Executive Board
MENTORING PROGRAM

What NOT to Include

- Classified or government sensitive information
- Social Security Number (SSN)
- Photos of yourself
- Personal information, such as age, gender, religious affiliation, etc.
- Encrypted and digitally signed documents

USAJOBS.gov

The Greater Kansas City Federal Executive Board
MENTORING PROGRAM

What to Include

Include dates, hours, level of experience and examples for each work experience

For each work experience you list, make sure you include:

- Start and end dates (including the month and year)
- The number of hours you worked per week
- The level and amount of experience
- Examples of relevant experiences and accomplishments that prove you can perform the tasks at the level required for the job as stated in the job opportunity announcement.

Your experience needs to address every required qualification.

The Greater Kansas City Federal Executive Board
MENTORING PROGRAM

What to Include

Include volunteer work and roles in community organizations

- Don't limit yourself to only including paid work experience
- Include relevant volunteer work or community organizations roles that demonstrate your ability to do the job
- Describe experience in translatable terms

USAJOBS.gov

The Greater Kansas City Federal Executive Board
MENTORING PROGRAM

What to Include

Use numbers to highlight your accomplishments

- Use numbers, percentages or dollars to highlight your accomplishments
- You may find this information in items like your performance reviews, previous job descriptions, awards and letters of recommendation
- When explaining your accomplishments:
 - Include examples of how you saved money, earned money, or managed money
 - Include examples of how you saved or managed time

Experience Example

Management and Program Analyst, GS-07

May 2011 – April 2012

Project Analysis and Coordination

- Analyzed program accomplishments of the National Cyber Scholarship Program. Assisted with drafting the evaluation briefing and co-presented recommendations to approximately 40 high-level agency officials.
- Coordinated the receipt and oversaw processing for over 15,000 grant applications. Exceeded processing deadlines by 18%.

Data Management

- Developed an office tracking system for managing an increased number of audit report requirements. The new system improved workflow, file management, and communication methods. Resulted in meeting reporting deadlines for the first time in 5 years.
- Collected and maintained program financial, evaluation, and outcome data for over 30 projects operating within the organization. Analyzed data quarterly and briefed organization leadership.

Format

Organize your resume to make it easy to understand

- Organize your resume to help agencies evaluate your experience. Start with your most recent experience first and work your way back
- Provide greater detail for experience that is relevant to the job for which you are applying
- Show all experiences and accomplishments under the job title in which you earned it. This helps agencies determine the amount of experience you have with that particular skill
- Use either bullet or paragraph format to describe your experiences and accomplishments
- Use plain language
- Avoid using acronyms and terms that are not easily understood

MENTORING PROGRAM

Be Concise

- Hiring agencies often receive dozens or even hundreds of resumes for certain positions. Hiring managers quickly skim through submissions and eliminate candidates who clearly are not qualified.
- Look at your resume and ask:
 - Can a hiring manager see my main credentials within seconds?
 - Does critical information jump off the page?
 - Do I effectively sell myself on the top quarter of the first page?

Search for Announced Positions

USAJOBS Search

- You can save a search to look for jobs in your area of interest.
- You can create and save up to 10 saved searches.
- A saved search will expire one year after you create it.
- You can sign up to receive daily, weekly or monthly email notifications.
- You can manage your saved searches in your USAJOBS account.

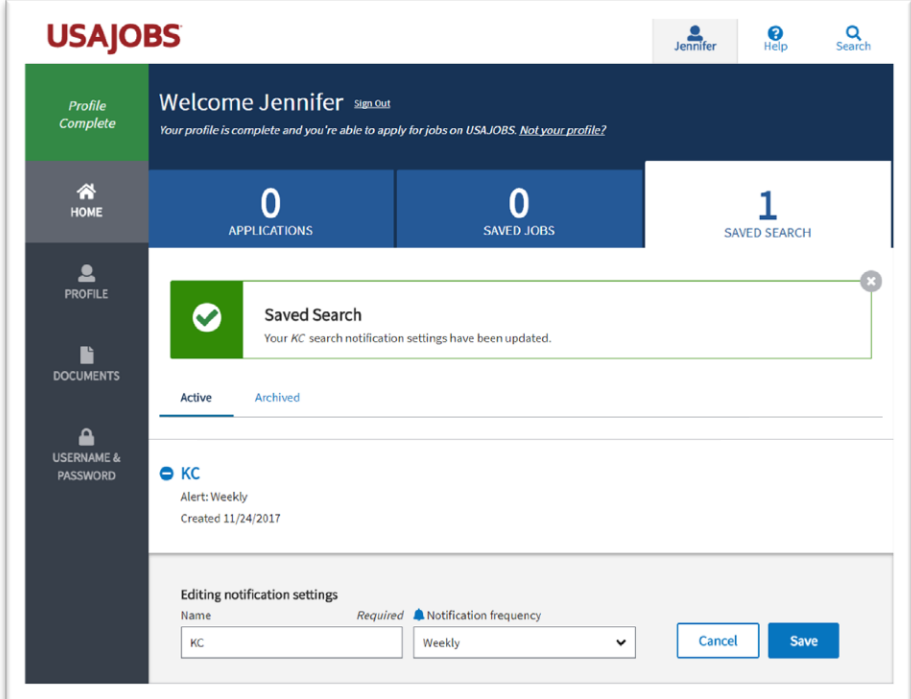

The screenshot displays the USAJOBS search interface. At the top, the 'USAJOBS' logo is visible. Below it, there are search bars for 'Keywords' (with placeholder text 'Job title, dept., agency, series, or occupation') and 'Location' (with placeholder text 'City, state, zip, or country'). A row of filter buttons is shown, including 'Full-time', 'Permanent', 'Not required', 'Occasional travel', '25% or less', '50% or less', 'Kansas City, Missouri', and '25 miles'. A 'Remove all filters' link is also present. Below the filters, it says 'Viewing 1 - 10 of 225 jobs' and a 'Sort by' dropdown menu set to 'Relevance'. A 'Save this search' dialog box is open, with the text 'We'll email you new jobs as they become available.' The dialog has a 'Name' field (marked 'Required') and a 'Notification frequency' dropdown set to 'Daily'. 'Cancel' and 'Save' buttons are at the bottom right of the dialog. Below the dialog, a job listing for 'VMO (Public Health) (Public Health Veterinarian)' is shown, including details like 'Food Safety and Inspection Service', 'Department of Agriculture', 'Multiple Locations', and 'Starting at $60,210 (GS 11-12)'. A 'Save Job' button is next to the listing. At the bottom, a date range 'Open 10/25/2017 to 10/24/2018' is displayed.

Set USAJOBS Notifications

- From your USAJOBS profile, select one of your Saved Searches.
- Choose how often you want to get notified.

Tip: If you are looking for a specific position, select Daily as some job opportunity announcements may close within a week. You may change your preferences at any time.

The screenshot shows the USAJOBS user interface for a user named Jennifer. The top navigation bar includes the USAJOBS logo, a user profile icon, a help icon, and a search icon. The main content area is divided into a left sidebar and a main panel. The sidebar contains links for HOME, PROFILE, DOCUMENTS, and USERNAME & PASSWORD. The main panel displays a welcome message and statistics: 0 APPLICATIONS, 0 SAVED JOBS, and 1 SAVED SEARCH. A green checkmark icon indicates that the user's KC search notification settings have been updated. Below this, there is a section for 'Saved Search' with tabs for 'Active' and 'Archived'. The 'Active' tab is selected, showing a search named 'KC' with an alert frequency of 'Weekly' and a creation date of '11/24/2017'. At the bottom, there is a section for 'Editing notification settings' with a 'Name' field containing 'KC' and a 'Notification frequency' dropdown menu set to 'Weekly'. 'Cancel' and 'Save' buttons are located at the bottom right of the settings section.
